DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1 and 21 are objected to because of the following informalities: In lines 13 and 12 of the respective claims – typographical error – “wherein at least one indentation element” should read as “wherein the at least one indentation element”.

Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

Applicant failed to file a Terminal Disclaimer to overcome the rejection as stated by Applicant on Page 10 in the response filed on October 28, 2005. The below rejection is a recapitulation of the one found in the previous Office Action filed June 22, 2005.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1, 3-13 and 15-20 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over Claims 1-17 of copending Application No. 10/103631 in view of Oyama (U.S. Patent 4779179).

The copending application recites a headlight including a light source, mirror, and transparent optical deflection element placed in front of said mirror, as claimed in the current application, but does not specifically teach at least one detachment element arranged on the surface of the mirror or transparent optical deflection element.

Oyama teaches various prismatic surfaces on a mirrored surface [Figure 2: (1)], as well as on a lens [Figure 2: (2)] disposed in front of said mirrored surface.

It would have been obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of invention to modify the headlight of the copending application to incorporate the prismatic surfaces of Oyama in order to provide a desired optical effect on the illumination [e.g., light distribution].

In addition, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate the prismatic surfaces as a separable detachment element, since it has been held that constructing a formerly integral structure in various elements involves only routine skill in the art. Nerwin v. Erlichman, 168 USPQ 177, 179. It also would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to rearrange the prismatic surfaces to produce the desired optical effect, since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. In re Japiske, 86 USPQ 70.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1, 3-13, and 15-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

4. With regard to Independent Claims 1 and 21-22, the Applicant has amended the claims to recite an "indentation element", which is not supported anywhere by the specification [please note the last paragraph on p. 15 and the recitation of "detachments"] and renders an indefinite or unclear definition. In addition, the drawings do not adequately exhibit element 101 as being an indentation(s), but more clearly as a detachment(s).

5. At present, a prior art search cannot be conducted due to the new matter and uncertainty with what is being defined by an "indentation element".

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
